AS ANNUAL BBQ APPROACHES, RANCHERS HIRE ARMED GUARDS TO PROTECT THEIR LIVESTOCK YEARLY DISAPPEARANCE OF CATTLE, PIGS AND CHICKENS A MYSTERY

MATAMORAS, PA, AUGUST 16, 2015 Well, it was another hot one for the August match. 40 shooters turned up so they could throw some lead down range. Although the humidity wasn't as bad as last month, it still took a toll on the gunslingers.

Stages 1, 2 and 3 were fairly quick and easy. Stage 4 had the Texas Star which didn't seem to intimidate anyone.

Stage 5 with the "running man" mover did provide a challenge though. It looks like only about 10 to 12 shooters were able the triple tap it before it hid behind the barrels. If this is the type of challenge you like, we'd like to get some feedback. Or if we need to dial it back a little, maybe two shots on it, let us know.

The next match will have simpler stages, maybe two stand and delivers, so we can finish early and get everything put away as soon as possible. We'll shoot all five stages before we break for the BBQ.

Rocket Shoes was the winner of our 50/50 drawing and won $72.

ANNUAL BBQ...

Our next shoot is Sunday, September 13. It's also our Annual BBQ match. More information will be sent in a few weeks. Hammerin Steel will be behind the grill again and with the help of G.W. Wishbone, it should be a be a great one.

Thanks to Abe The Crippler, Chivato, Nighthawk, Mighty Quinn and Tin Man for helping set up on Saturday.

Hope you can make it in September.

Happy Trails,

TRIVIA QUESTION

In 1952, he made his film debut in the western, The Cimarron Kid. Because of his strongly Spanish appearance, he was cast in a variety of ethnic roles in films and television. He was cast as General Huerta in Viva Zapata, which starred Marlon Brando. Ironically, it was the first time a major motion picture studio had used a non-white actor to play a non-white character.

He made guest appearances in numerous TV series, mainly dramas and westerns, including Bat Masterson, Riverboat and Bonanza.

He teamed with Marlon Brando for a third time in the Western: The Appaloosa, followed by guest roles on Dundee and the Culhane and The Wild, Wild West. He appeared as a Mexican bandit in the 1967 Western classic, Hombre, based on the Elmore Leonard novel. He also had a supporting role as Lobero in the Zapata Western: Guns of the Magnificent Seven.

Email me with the answer if you know.
