THUNDERSTORMS, TORNADOES, TSUNAMI, FOG THREATENS MATCH AT RATTLESNAKE RIDGE

...BUT 20 GUNSLINGERS WERE NOT INTIMIDATED!

MATAMORAS, PA, May 15, 2011

Well, the tsunami and tornado never arrived. But the early morning weather did not look good, as heavy rains pelted the area. If there was a day to stay in the bunkhouse under a warm blanket, this was it. Amazingly, 20 shooters braved the elements and arrived to throw some lead down range.

We voted to have two posses this time, in order to shoot faster to avoid the impending heavy rain. Thankfully, the rain stopped before the safety briefing and allowed a great match to take place. Although a heavy fog rolled in, the cowboys and cowgirls still made the steel targets sing. Both posses worked well and kept things moving rather quickly.

Black Jack Ed tried his ambidexterous skills by shooting stages 4 and 5 left handed. And he shot them clean! Nice shooting!

Trixie Triggers wrote two stages for the match and Turkey Creek Vic wrote three stages for the next shoot.

The 50/50 drawing this month was won by Wild Cat Kenna ($24). The money may be put toward some new shooting irons for her mom.
