GUNFIGHTERS SHOOT MATAMORAS MATCH FAST & FURIOUS IN ANTICIPATION OF BBQ FEAST

FIVE STAGES COMPLETED AND PUT AWAY IN RECORD TIME

MATAMORAS, PA, SEPT. 9, 2012

What a glorious day for a shoot! Especially after heavy rain and tornados were in the area the day before. This was the best weather we've had for a match all season. 45 gunslingers arrived to test their skills and partake in our Fourth Annual BBQ, headed by Hammer-in Steel and his fantastic chuckwagon crew. Our thanks go to Anita, Cathy, Ralph (Wishbone) Luke, Sal Pinzone Jr., and Jason Cameron who provided a great lunch. And thanks to Tom Payne for another great harmonica rendition of The Star Spangled Banner before the safety briefing.

The stages were straight forward but still presented a challenge, especially to the stage writer. Beside the 4 shooters who had a clean match, there were 7 shooters who had only one miss for the match.

Posse 2 had an interesting situation.. did Tom Payne shoot 4 or 5 rounds with his pistol? Was there a "Stealth" bullet in there? Where did that 5th round come from? And why would you ever disagree with Pike? 8-)

We had 5 Buckaroos and a Buckarette for this match and we're happy to see them all improve their shooting skills. If we can harness Will Beat Ya's energy, he'll be a contender for Pike in the near future.

The 50/50 drawing this month was won by Turkey Creek Vic ($55).

For our last match of the season, as well as the Wild Bunch category, we will have a 10 shot (12 for WB) shotgun only stage with 3 birds, one of them a bonus. There will also be a no procedural stage, where you can shoot anyway you want, as long as the steel is hit.

Iames Samuel Pike was our Top Gun for the month of September. The Eastwood Kid came in second, and Pecos Sam came in third. Congratulations, nice shootin.

CLEAN SHOOTERS

We had four clean shooters for the match: Robin Cash, El Diablo Gringo, Lead Poison and Dirtwater Dawg. Two of them shot Frontiersman, so there was a lot of smoke to contend with.

Lead Poison

El Diablo Gringo

Dirtwater Dawg

NEW SHOOTERS

We had two new shooters this month. Jack a Hearts and Tommy Catchem shot with The Mavericks for the first time. They're invited back to shoot with us anytime.

WILD BUNCH MATCH

We would like to have a separate posse for the Wild Bunch if possible, since the scenarios may be slightly different concerning the round count. It may get confusing if we mix in the cowboys. Shoot me an email if you would like to be included in that posse.

Thanks to all who made The Matamoras Mavericks a huge success and it's the best year we've had so far. And next year, we'll have a real restroom! Hope to see y'all next month.
